Litigation

On the basis of our extensive litigation experience, we develop suitable procedural strategies and enforce your claims, be it before the courts across all instances or in direct negotiations with the adversary. We can also assist you with any preparatory measures, including establishing the relevant facts or conducting anonymous test purchases, and can coordinate legal proceedings on a global scale on your behalf.

Consulting

Of course, we can also answer any general IP questions you may have, provide you with legal opinions and draft and review licensing or demarcation agreements for your company.
